

REPORT

Individual Submission

Objective

The purpose of this individual report is to demonstrate your understanding of the key themes, values, and characteristics of Canadian culture as explored in Course Content 1–13. This is your opportunity to reflect critically on what you’ve learned, synthesize content across Module 2, and connect this knowledge to real-life applications—whether as a newcomer, student, or professional in Canada.

Report Requirements

1. Title Page:

- Report title: Introduction to Canadian Culture
- Your full name
- Student ID

2. Introduction (Approx. 150–200 words)

Briefly introduce the purpose of the report. Mention what Module 2 covers and why understanding Canadian culture is important for newcomers, students, or professionals in Canada.

3. Body of the Report (Approx. 800–1000 words)

Divide the body into 3–4 sections. Each section should focus on a major theme or aspect from the module. You can organize the report in any logical format, such as:

- Core Canadian Values
- Cultural Practices and Social Norms
- Multiculturalism and Immigration
- Canadian Communication Styles
- Workplace and Academic Culture
- National Identity Through Symbols & Stories

4. Conclusion (Approx. 150–200 words)

Summarize what you’ve learned about Canadian culture and how this knowledge will help you in real-life settings (e.g., studying, working, or living in Canada). Reflect on your personal growth through this module.

5. Personal Reflection (Approx. 100–150 words)

Write a brief reflection on a real-life experience where you noticed something different or unusual in Canadian culture. Choose something that seemed “unusual” at first but made sense over time. Compare how this situation is handled in your home country.

You can reflect on things like:

- Pedestrian traffic lights
- Tipping culture, personal space, or other social customs.

Formatting & Submission Guidelines

- Length: 1200–1500 words
- Format: 12-point font, double-spaced, with 1-inch margins
- File Format: PDF or Word document
- Academic Integrity Notice: Submissions will be checked for plagiarism and improper use of AI tools. Work must reflect original thinking. Misuse may lead to academic penalties as per policy.
