

Speech Analysis

In-Class Group Submission

Objective

This in-class assignment is designed to help WIL employees explore effective speakers and develop the skills and competencies needed to become confident speakers themselves.

Instructions

Each team will choose a speaker and watch a short video clip of a well-known speech delivered by that speaker.

Analyze the Speech: Discuss what makes their speech great or what you would do differently if you delivered the same speech.

Submission: As a group answer the following questions.

- How did the speaker grab attention?
- What were the main points, and how were they structured?
- How did the speaker use voice, gestures, and eye contact?
- How did the speaker wrap up the speech?
- Overall, what worked well? What could be improved?
